"I set out that my client would be willing to agree a new determination date for both applications until 12 May 2018 and if any further extensions are required in order to resolve this matter then I would be happy to agree these with you in advance."

AND

"Thanks for your email.

I will certainly discuss this with my manager although, as I explained to Mr Gluck earlier, I cannot see any way in which a Prior Approval application could be amended to address the noise concerns that have been raised."
