One heroic man kept the nation entertained:

Justin Warshaw QC

This headline appeared in the Daily Mail:

“£58,000 for shoes, £50,000 for Christmas dinner and £40,000 for fur coats a YEAR - it's what I'm used to': Former model cries in court as she explains why she needs £196m from her Saudi billionaire ex

Mr Warshaw said: 'You are claiming for 55 pairs of boots and shoes, at a cost of £58,000 every year. Can you not see that that is a lot of money?'

Her budget also includes £93,739 a year on beauty treatment including 52 facials, 44 manicures and 52 massages. In addition £22,812 for beauty products including £9,400 on four bottles of face cream.

Then there is £4,000 for 15 pairs of sunglasses, two sets of ski wear and 54 pairs of shoes a year just seven of which will cost £20,965 for white tie events. Plus £26,000 for her mobile phone

The killer Question:

She insisted that she regularly visits the opera, but when asked to name another, Ms Estrada said 'The Nutcracker', which, as Mr Warshaw pointed out, is in fact a ballet.

Two central questions:

HOW MUCH?

HOW LONG?

Spousal maintenance – general approach

- Family Justice Council ‘Guidance on Financial Needs on Divorce’ 2nd edition says of SS v NS (spousal maintenance) [2014] EWHC 4183 (Fam) para 46:

‘When read in conjunction with the overarching guidance provided in the leading cases in the House of Lords (Miller; McFarlane) and in the Court of Appeal (Flavell and C v C) the Family Justice Council endorses and commends adopting this type of rigorous and disciplined approach, consistent with the overall objective identified above in paragraph 15 and the ‘gentle transition’ towards independence.

PAYEE'S BUDGET v PAYER'S MONEY

Purba [1999] EWCA Civ 1730

Scheeres [1999] 1 FLR 241

- H v W (cap on wife's share of bonus payments) [2015] 1 FLR 75
- Fields v Fields [2015] EWHC 1670 (Fam)
- Aburn v Aburn [2017] 1 FLR 72

Practical priorities

1. The payer's income
2. The payee's income and/or earning capacity
3. The payee's needs
4. The payer's needs
5. Stand-back

30. I would suggest that this case amply demonstrates that the FRC judiciary is now asking itself the right question whenever it is suggested by an applicant that a clean break should not be imposed. That question is "Has the applicant demonstrated by clear and cogent evidence good reasons why there should not be a clean break?" and not "Has the respondent demonstrated why there should be a clean break?" I emphasise that, in order to comply with the terms of s. 25A Matrimonial Causes Act 1973, a decision not to impose a clean break must be seen very much as the exception to the rule. The onus is on the applicant distinctly to prove by clear and cogent evidence that there should not be a clean break.
